115 New Members Are Added to Farm Bureau; Campaign Will Be Continued Later; Boll Weevils Thick; Use Calcium Arsenate

During the latter part of June, Hon. John R. Witt, Vice-President of Alabama Farm Bureau Federation, and a large holder of the best cotton lands in the Tennessee valley in North Alabama led a campaign in the county for more active co-operation among our farmers. In co-operation with the farm bureau leaders, Bro. Witt signed 115 new members, making a grand total of 500 bona fide members in Coffee County to date.

On July 13th Mr. Witt will be with us again for a week's stay at which time we expect to hold several community meetings and visit a number of farmers. Over 200 farmers were visited by the County Agent during the past two weeks in interest of co-operation and other agricultural and farm problems.

Boll Weevils Thick; Control With Calcium Arsenate Dust.

The rain during the last few days has set the weevils at work again in threatening numbers and we urge every farmer who has a prospect of a half bale per acre to keep this infestation below 10 per cent by use of calcium arsenate dust. The farm bureau will supply all necessary poison at cost and can purchase machinery for dusting. All orders for poison should be accompanied with a 2c per lb. deposit on calcium arsenate.

Farmers don't let the weevils eat you up. Get in touch at once with this office and we will give you the necessary assistance.

Hogs To Be High This Fall Says Government Report.

The day of cheap pork has passed, and the government report indicates the highest price for hogs this fall since the war time guaranteed prices. Every brood sow should be well cared for and every farmer should enroll his boy in the Pig Club. We can get the best gift for your boy that will soon develop into a fine sow. Coffee County is naturally a hog county and we are sloping on our inheritance by not raising more porkers. Let everybody line up in this profitable pork producing industry.

Farm Bureau Meeting And Free Picture Slides at Elba Next Wednesday

There will be a Farm Bureau meeting, and free picture slides at Elba, next Wednesday morning, July 8th, at 10:00 o'clock. Also at Enterprise Wednesday afternoon, July 8th, at 1:30 o'clock.

All farmers and everybody invited to hear Frank Boyd, Soil Specialist from Auburn at the above times and places. Slides on hairy vetch will be shown and a field demonstration given immediately after the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hudson visited friends in Opp Sunday.

Miss Arline Lee, of Evergreen visited relatives in Elba last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ham and children, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ham and Mr. Dan Lee are spending a few days at Seagrave, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McKinnon and little daughters, Sarah Boyd, Christine, Edna, Alice and Francis, of Union Springs, and Elinor Boyd, of Childersburg are guests this week of Mrs. W. P. Boyd.

ELBA BANKS WILL CLOSE SATURDAY.

The banks of Elba will be closed all day next Saturday, and no business will be transacted by these institutions that day. It is July 4th, and a legal holiday, and those who have business transactions that must be attended to should see after them on Friday or some other day than Saturday.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Dr. W. P. Hurt, presiding elder of the Troy district, is in the Memorial Hospital where he has been operated on for cataracts of the eyes. He is also suffering from gall stones. Let our people remember him in his illness.

Mr. Brace Maddox, after a long stay in the Masonic Hospital at Troy, is at home with his family recuperating from the injuries he received in a Ford wreck near Troy.

Mrs. J. B. Higgins, Jr., is convalescing in a hospital at Dothan. We are glad to hear this good news.

Mrs. Dan Parker, who has been quite sick for the last two weeks is much better.

We are glad to see Mrs. Bob Cooper back from a visit to her father, Rev. Walker Bancroft, pastor at Pine Apple.

Miss Jeanette Garrett, with others left this week to study in Columbia University, New York.

Our church has at last received its new coat of paint and the ceiling fans have been installed. This is the most beautiful auditorium we have ever seen. You can keep cool and feel pleasant all through the services and go home refreshed on the hottest days. Come and help us enjoy worship.

The pastor had a nice long letter from Mr. L. K. Pulliam, lately moved to Pensacola. You will be interested to know that he and his estimable wife are well.

After four weeks of services in the two other churches of the city, our services will resume their regular time of worship. Miss Daffin Lowrey has returned to the parsonage after attending the Students' Conference at Blue Ridge, N. C.

Mrs. F. M. Lowrey is visiting her sister at Orville, Ala.

The people in the community of Ham's schoolhouse met and organized a Sunday School after preaching last Sunday. We hope this is a beginning of a great school.

There will be services at Liberty next Sunday afternoon.

ALL DAY SINGING AT BRADSHAW SCHOOL HOUSE.

The Annual Sacred Harp Singing at Bradshaw School House will be held on Wednesday, July 15th, 1925. All are cordially invited to come. Those who contemplate running a cold drink stand, are respectfully requested by the school and church authorities to please not bring a stand this year, so that the school can conduct one for the benefit of the Bradshaw school.

JUDGE CARNEY SEES NO REASON FOR LEAVING STATE ON VACATION.

Probate Judge J. A. Carney of Coffee County, spent Friday in Montgomery. Judge Carney is of the opinion that the man or woman who leaves Alabama for vacation is making a mistake and missing something. Judge Carney was in Montgomery on his way home from a vacation spent at Monticello on top of Lookout Mountain, in northeast Alabama. He says the mountains of Alabama are just as fine places for a vacation as the mountains of any other state. He says the temperatures are ideal and there is a bracing charm to the atmosphere which puts one back into first class condition very quickly.

"Alabamians ought to learn something about their own State," said Judge Carney. "We have everything that any other state can offer. We have a fine seashore if the vacationist wants that. We have fine mineral springs if the vacationist wants them. We have bracing mountain resorts if the vacationist wants them. About the only thing we cannot offer is four per cent beer which some of the Canadian resorts can offer, but from what we read about it, even that percentage measured by the Canadian weight system instead of the old volume system, is nothing to go long distances for. We must get the idea into our own heads that Alabama is the greatest state in the nation and that we have everything every other state has and a little bit more. When we get this idea thoroughly into our own 'noggins' we can get it into the heads of the citizens of the other states."—Passing Through Column, Montgomery Advertiser.

MRS. TATOM ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE PARTY.

Mrs. T. A. Tatam was hostess at a bridge party Friday evening, complimenting Miss Jeanette Garrett who left Saturday afternoon for N. Y. City. After the games an ice course was served to Misses Mable Brunson, Kate Rainer, Jeanette Garrett, Eloise Ham and Mesdames Dana Perdue and Mercer Rowe.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Banard have been spending several days this week at Phillips' Inlet.

EXCHANGE CLUB HEARS FINE TALK FROM MR. WITT.

The Elba Exchange Club enjoyed a very enthusiastic meeting on last Friday night at the Brick Hotel, at which time a most delightful four course dinner was served to the members and visitors.

The Club had as guests on this occasion Hon. John R. Witt, Vice-President of the Alabama Farm Bureau, who has been in the county for the past several days conducting a membership campaign for the local county farm bureau, and Mr. R. G. Arnold, our County Farm Demonstration Agent.

Mr. Witt made a most interesting talk before the club showing the necessity for better marketing facilities for farmers for their cotton. Mr. Witt emphasized the fact that cotton is the greatest money crop, and also showed that the South raises the bulk of the cotton and under present conditions is getting a price far too low, to successfully keep raising the staple. He pleaded for co-operation of every one present to the plan of marketing which is now being carried on with satisfying results. Mr. Arnold also spoke briefly, thanking the club members and the business men generally for the splendid help they have given him in his work in the county.

Following these talks the club unanimously voted for an agricultural committee to be appointed, which will look after all matters agriculturally and assist in every way possible to provide more and better markets for farmers for their produce.

SPEND THE FOURTH AT NEW BROCKTON POOL.

The public is cordially invited to come to the Hutchinson Springs, Pool and Skating Rink at New Brockton, on the 4th of July—next Saturday. We will have an old-fashioned square dance. Bring your old fiddle with you, and dinner and leave the rum at home for a little while.

I have a skating rink 45 feet wide and 85 feet long, which will be opened free to all for skating and dancing on the fourth. Come one and all and enjoy yourself. That day our grand parents hearts were made glad to know that they were 100 per cent Americans. The great battle had been won by our grandfathers, and now they sleep that mortal sleep and we have their places, so let's be 100 per cent Americans and celebrate the fourth of July as they did when I was a little boy. I can remember our fathers and mothers would have a big dance and a big day—I know because I was there.

Respectfully,
C. S. HUTCHISON.

Many Lose Lives and Property Damage Is Estimated at Ten Million Dollars by Quake Which Rocks Town of Santa Barbara, Cal.

Santa Barbara, Calif., June 29.—Ten million dollars damage and virtual destruction of most business buildings on State Street resulted from an earthquake here at 6:45 a. m. Monday. The scene of the destruction was visited by a staff man from the Los Angeles office of the Associated Press.

San Francisco, Calif., June 29.—Sixty-five bodies had been reported recovered Monday afternoon in Santa Barbara in the first definite news received from the stricken city.

The advices came to the Southern Pacific railroad headquarters from employees who rushed to the nearest point of communication.

The stricken territory is believed to have been rocked by a new and severe shock at 11:25 a. m.

At the time the Southern Pacific operator at Naples, 18 miles north of Santa Barbara wired:

"Here comes a shock—"

Communication snapped before he could finish the sentence.

Hotels, business blocks, churches, schools and industrial structures were wrecked by the first shock. Earth tremors were reported continuing at five-minute intervals but in weakened intensity and without additional damage. The following summary of the situation in Santa Barbara was received over the private lines of the San Joaquin Light and Power Company at Fresno and telephoned to International News Service.

Seven were reported crushed to death when the walls of the Arlington hotel caved in.

State Street, the main thoroughfare, completely filled up with debris and impassable for traffic. State Street has been roped off to prevent people from possible injury from weakened walls.

The First National Bank is reported destroyed.

Other buildings either destroyed or badly damaged included:

The Pacific Southwest Bank, the Santa Barbara Mission, the city library, the city hall, the Granada theater, the Catholic School building, the Carrillo hotel, the Carrillo house.

Desperate efforts are being made by telephone and telegraph companies to restore communication into the stricken city.

The famous Santa Barbara Mission, which has stood since its establishment during the earliest days of California settlement was in ruins.

The city was menaced Monday afternoon by the danger of flood, the report said.

The dam impounding the city's water supply was weakened, the report said, that it was feared it would give way at any minute. The city was without water, electric lights or power.

Miss Sallie Collier spent Sunday and Monday with relatives in Montgomery.

Mrs. J. W. Kendrick visited her sister, Miss Clarice Barnes, in Troy Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Rainer, of Ozark, were guests of Elba relatives the first of the week.

Mr. Gordon Rainer left Wednesday for Boston Mass, where he will be for three months before going to the Panama Canal zone.

Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Taylor and family returned to Elba Friday from Mentone where they spent ten days attending the Baptist Assembly.

GOOD POULTRYMEN ARE MAKING MONEY.

Auburn, Ala., June 29.—There are now in Alabama approximately 200 farm-flock poultrymen who are demonstrating that there is money in poultry if good methods are practiced. They are located all over the State and are co-operating with the county agents and Extension poultry specialists with a view to making poultry a bigger and more profitable industry in Alabama.

For the month of May, John E. Ivey, head of the poultry department at Auburn, received reports from 163 of these demonstrators. A tabulation shows that there is an average of 106 hens to the flock and that the average production per hen was 16.2 eggs at a cost of 14 cents per dozen.

These eggs were sold at market prices, averaging 26.8 cents per dozen. This left a net profit, above cost of feed, of 28 cents per hen, or nearly one cent per day. For the average flock of 106 hens it was almost exactly $1.00 per day.

Additional statistics show that the average total income per flock for May was $50.00, and that the net, above feed cost, was $29.94. This total includes the eggs, cockerels, broilers, and culled hens.

These flocks are being used for poultry development purposes. Extension poultry specialists try to visit them monthly with the county agents and hold community meetings where practical lessons are taught and demonstration demonstrated. The plan is working very effectively.

"BUNK," SAYS MAN, 109, OF EVOLUTION: WOULD JAIL SCOPES.

Jacksonville, June 27.—"I believe Adam was the first man, not the first monkey."

With this terse statement of his belief in man's origin, Major Edward James Monroe, 109-year-old veteran of five wars, who claims to be the son of James Monroe, the fifth president of the United States, arrayed himself four-square with the fundamentalists in the present controversy on evolution.

"My father didn't believe in evolution, either," said the old man, explaining his views in an exclusive interview with International News Service.

There wasn't any of this monkey talk in his day, but he taught me that man was created in God's image and if he were living today I am certain he would volunteer his services in prosecuting that young white persnapper up in Tennessee."

The major summarized his opinion of evolution in one short word—"bunk." Anyone who teaches it, he says, should be placed in jail.

"I'm a fundamentalist," said Monroe. "God intended to create man I don't see why he had to put us in a series of monkey eggs first. In my opinion humans did not ascend from the monkey, but I have about decided that some humans do descend to monkeys. That's the reason for all this excitement in Tennessee."

Major Monroe has made his home here ever since his discharge from the Confederate army. He owns a large tract of land in Jacksonville's most fashionable residential district.

NOTICE TO NON RESIDENT.

State of Alabama, Coffee County.

W. P. McSwain & Bro. Vs. V. E. Brown.

Before me, J. W. English, a Justice of the Peace, came the plaintiff in the above cause by agent, Emil Gilchrist, and file suit against defendant, and it appearing that certain property of the defendant is in the hands of the Elba Telephone Company, a corporation, a writ of garnishment has been issued and notice duly served upon said garnishee; said writ returnable before me on the 3rd day of July, 1925, at 10 o'clock, a. m. and that said defendant is a non-resident of this state; it is therefore ordered that said notice of garnishment be published in the Elba Clipper, a newspaper published in Coffee County, Alabama, for a period of a successive weeks, and a copy thereof mailed to said defendant at his place of residence.

Given under my hand, this 29th day of May, 1925.

J. W. ENGLISH,
Justice of the Peace.

QUALITY SERVICE

You've often heard the quotation.

It is used to emphasize security, stability, certainty.

"Money in the bank" means prosperity and security to the depositor. It stamps him as a man of importance to his community, one who conducts his business, be it large or small, on strictly business lines. It assists in establishing his line of credit, so that he may make quicker turnovers on smaller capital.
